The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements (i) Bachelor’s Degree (or higher) from an accredited college university; (ii) Three years of full-time personal financial planning experience; (iii) Completion of a comprehensive program of study; (iv) Successful passing of a 10-hour exam; and, (v) Consent to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct, the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals. After certification, continued use of the designation mandates 30 hours of continuing education every two years and on-going commitment to the ethics and practice standards.
